

BIOFUELS
CORPORATION
TRADING LTD

Job Description

Job Title: Process Operator

Reports To: Shift Supervisor

Location: Biofuels site, Seal Sands

Date: February 2008

Due to our continued success, we are looking for experienced process operators who are in need of a challenge.

Job Purpose

Working as part of small team on a continuous 12 hour shift basis, you will be required to monitor, adjust, and control equipment and processes to optimise throughput, within its operating parameters.

Following procedures diligently and rational decision making based on experience are important personal traits

The plant's safety and environmental challenges are demanding working to IPPC legislation

Experience of continuous plant operation is essential, along with knowledge of distillation, solids handling and centrifugal operation.

Key qualities will be: -

- High regards for QSHE aspects.
- Highly focused with a results oriented attitude in a team environment.
- Possess excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Drive performance and lead continuous improvement initiatives.

Qualifications and Experience

- PPO level 2 or NVQ equivalent is essential in process operations
- Fork Lift Truck license advantageous
- Permit to work experience advantageous

Starting Salary of £26,000 rising up to £31,000 through validation and experience.

Biofuels offers a contributory stakeholder pension scheme and a company performance bonus appraisal scheme.

If you are interested then please contact

Michael Gillatt

E-Mail : m_gillatt@biofuelscorp.com